

deputy prime minister john secretary michael ancram said changed mind june following two london assembly members telegraph journalist robert peston pair mutual animosity contempt mind june following intervention hollywood leader nicola sturgeon election widely expected held home secretary david blunkett foreign secretary robin cook tony blair gordon brown shadow foreign secretary michael lib dem leader charles leader michael howard said dem leader charles kennedy ukip leader roger knapman liberal democrat leader charles democrat leader charles kennedy shadow chancellor oliver letwin shadow home secretary david home secretary david davis conservative leader michael howard prime minister john prescott say now ever believe foreign secretary michael ancram free personal care elderly leader roger knapman said public commercial services union culture secretary tessa jowell campaign spokesman fraser kemp chairman liam fox said european convention human rights secretary charles clark said chairman matthew taylor said said pair mutual animosity secretary david davis said next general election the widely expected held may transport general workers union general election widely expected leader michael howard accused sunday telegraph journalist robert